

#teamtute

“ The is a strong team ethic and the support that is on offer is excellent

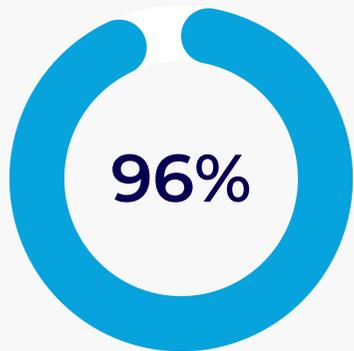

Ensuring that our employees are respected, challenged, and valued is a priority for Tute’s senior leadership team. We understand that every person in every role has a big part to play in ensuring a quality service for our customers and good outcomes for our students so making sure that we enjoy the tough work we do, cultivating a team ethos, and supporting each other is important to us.

We asked Team Tute...

Thinking of your personal experience of working at Tute, how would you rate Tute overall as your employer?

We recently reviewed what we as professionals value at Tute and the results were no surprise of Team Tute feel respected as an employee

When I have been stressed Tute has taken it seriously and shown respect and has worked constructively to help find solutions

People like working here!

“ I really enjoy the work, making a difference to students and improving their outcomes. I love being part of a team of highly valued colleagues

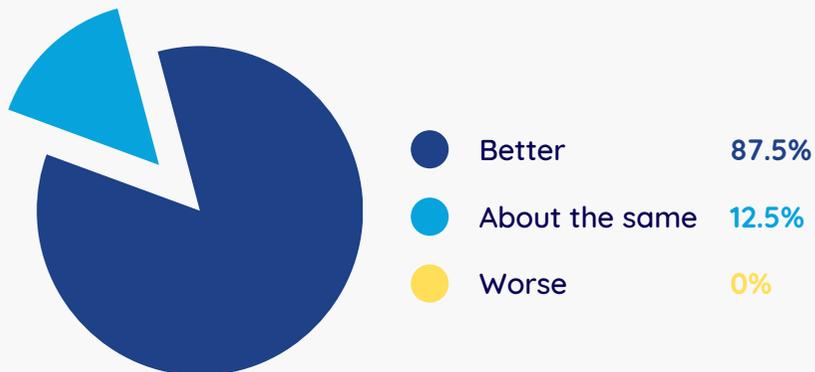

★ of Team Tute are satisfied working for Tute

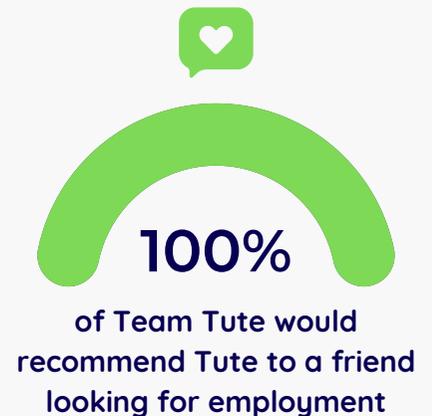

“ I enjoy the whole ethos of the workplace and that we are not afraid to do things our own way. For me the pandemic just reinforced the fact that we are a great company to work for, and we are able to adapt to difficult situations rapidly and effectively

We asked Team Tute...

Thinking of previous employment and/or knowledge of other workplaces through friends and family, how does Tute compare?

“ I am lucky to work in a friendly no blame culture where any mistakes which may be made are learned from rather than used as a means to judge on performance

Our team would recommend Tute to you, a prospective employee