

English GCSE Revision

HT5

2022

11:00

12:00

16:00

17:00

18:00

19:00

Monday

PROGRAMME 1
Exam practice -
Paper 1

PROGRAMME 2
Exam practice -
Paper 1

Tuesday

PROGRAMME 3
Exam practice -
Paper 1

Wednesday

PROGRAMME 6
Exam practice -
Paper 2

PROGRAMME 3
Exam practice -
Paper 1

Thursday

PROGRAMME 6
Exam practice -
Paper 2

PROGRAMME 4
Exam practice -
Paper 2

Friday

PROGRAMME 1
Exam practice -
Paper 1

PROGRAMME 2
Exam practice -
Paper 1

PROGRAMME 4
Exam practice -
Paper 2

Saturday

PROGRAMME 5
Exam practice -
Paper 2

PROGRAMME 5
Exam practice -
Paper 2

Click on your programme of interest to explore the programme structure

Because of the ongoing impacts of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, AQA have provided advance information on the focus of June 2022 exams.

Tute have created six specific GCSE English language programmes focused on developing a secure understanding of key content and skills to be assessed in summer 2022. Including exam practice, these programmes are suitable for students who need a boost in English and support with targeted revision.

ENGLISH

Click here to register to join Tute Go Twilight >

Click here to explore GCSE English revision timetable >

Programme 1

Exam practice - Paper 1

Mondays at 16:00

Fridays at 16:00

Lesson 1

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 1, Q1) Nov 2020

Lesson 2

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 1, Q2) Nov 2020

Lesson 3

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explore, comment on and analyse the writer's use of structure?

(Paper 1, Q3) Nov 2020

Lesson 4

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to evaluate texts critically?

(Paper 1, Q4) Nov 2020

Lesson 5

How can you respond to narrative and descriptive exam writing tasks effectively?

(Paper 1, Q5) Nov 2020

Lesson 6

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 1, Q1) Nov 2019

Lesson 7

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 1, Q2) Nov 2019

Lesson 8

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explore, comment on and analyse the writer's use of structure?

(Paper 1, Q3) Nov 2019

Lesson 9

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to evaluate texts critically?

(Paper 1, Q4) Nov 2019

Lesson 10

How can you respond to narrative and descriptive exam writing tasks effectively?

(Paper 1, Q5) Nov 2019

Because of the ongoing impacts of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, AQA have provided advance information on the focus of June 2022 exams.

Tute have created six specific GCSE English language programmes focused on developing a secure understanding of key content and skills to be assessed in summer 2022. Including exam practice, these programmes are suitable for students who need a boost in English and support with targeted revision.

ENGLISH

Click here to register to join Tute Go Twilight >

Click here to explore GCSE English revision timetable >

Programme 2

Exam practice - Paper 1

Mondays at 17:00
Fridays at 17:00

Lesson 1

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 1, Q1) Nov 2020

Lesson 2

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 1, Q2) Nov 2020

Lesson 3

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explore, comment on and analyse the writer's use of structure?

(Paper 1, Q3) Nov 2020

Lesson 4

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to evaluate texts critically?

(Paper 1, Q4) Nov 2020

Lesson 5

How can you respond to narrative and descriptive exam writing tasks effectively?

(Paper 1, Q5) Nov 2020

Lesson 6

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 1, Q1) Nov 2019

Lesson 7

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 1, Q2) Nov 2019

Lesson 8

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explore, comment on and analyse the writer's use of structure?

(Paper 1, Q3) Nov 2019

Lesson 9

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to evaluate texts critically?

(Paper 1, Q4) Nov 2019

Lesson 10

How can you respond to narrative and descriptive exam writing tasks effectively?

(Paper 1, Q5) Nov 2019

Because of the ongoing impacts of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, AQA have provided advance information on the focus of June 2022 exams.

Tute have created six specific GCSE English language programmes focused on developing a secure understanding of key content and skills to be assessed in summer 2022. Including exam practice, these programmes are suitable for students who need a boost in English and support with targeted revision.

ENGLISH

Click here to register to join Tute Go Twilight >

Click here to explore GCSE English revision timetable >

Programme 3

Exam practice - Paper 1

Tuesday at 19:00

Wednesday at 19:00

Lesson 1

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 1, Q1) Nov 2020

Lesson 2

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 1, Q2) Nov 2020

Lesson 3

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explore, comment on and analyse the writer's use of structure?

(Paper 1, Q3) Nov 2020

Lesson 4

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to evaluate texts critically?

(Paper 1, Q4) Nov 2020

Lesson 5

How can you respond to narrative and descriptive exam writing tasks effectively?

(Paper 1, Q5) Nov 2020

Lesson 6

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 1, Q1) Nov 2019

Lesson 7

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 1, Q2) Nov 2019

Lesson 8

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explore, comment on and analyse the writer's use of structure?

(Paper 1, Q3) Nov 2019

Lesson 9

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to evaluate texts critically?

(Paper 1, Q4) Nov 2019

Lesson 10

How can you respond to narrative and descriptive exam writing tasks effectively?

(Paper 1, Q5) Nov 2019

Because of the ongoing impacts of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, AQA have provided advance information on the focus of June 2022 exams.

Tute have created six specific GCSE English language programmes focused on developing a secure understanding of key content and skills to be assessed in summer 2022. Including exam practice, these programmes are suitable for students who need a boost in English and support with targeted revision.

ENGLISH

Click here to register to join Tute Go Twilight >

Click here to explore GCSE English revision timetable >

Programme 4

Exam practice - Paper 2

Thursday at 19:00

Friday at 19:00

Lesson 1

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 2, Q1) Nov 2020

Lesson 2

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to select and synthesise information from different texts?

(Paper 2, Q2) Nov 2020

Lesson 3

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 2, Q3) Nov 2020

Lesson 4

How can you prepare for AQA GCSE English Language?

Nov 2020

Lesson 5

How can you respond to exam questions to ask you to compare how writers' perspectives are conveyed across two texts?

(Paper 2, Q4) Nov 2020

Lesson 6

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 2, Q1) June 2018

Lesson 7

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to select and synthesise information from different texts?

(Paper 1, Q1) June 2018

Lesson 8

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 2, Q3) June 2018

Lesson 9

How can you prepare for AQA GCSE English Language?

June 2018

Lesson 10

How can you respond to exam questions to ask you to compare how writers' perspectives are conveyed across two texts?

(Paper 2, Q4) June 2018

Because of the ongoing impacts of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, AQA have provided advance information on the focus of June 2022 exams.

Tute have created six specific GCSE English language programmes focused on developing a secure understanding of key content and skills to be assessed in summer 2022. Including exam practice, these programmes are suitable for students who need a boost in English and support with targeted revision.

ENGLISH

Click here to register to join Tute Go Twilight >

Click here to explore GCSE English revision timetable >

Programme 5

Exam practice - Paper 2

Thursday at 19:00

Friday at 19:00

Lesson 1

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 2, Q1) Nov 2020

Lesson 2

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to select and synthesise information from different texts?

(Paper 2, Q2) Nov 2020

Lesson 3

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 2, Q3) Nov 2020

Lesson 4

How can you prepare for AQA GCSE English Language?

Nov 2020

Lesson 5

How can you respond to exam questions to ask you to compare how writers' perspectives are conveyed across two texts?

(Paper 2, Q4) Nov 2020

Lesson 6

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 2, Q1) June 2018

Lesson 7

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to select and synthesise information from different texts?

(Paper 1, Q1) June 2018

Lesson 8

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 2, Q3) June 2018

Lesson 9

How can you prepare for AQA GCSE English Language?

June 2018

Lesson 10

How can you respond to exam questions to ask you to compare how writers' perspectives are conveyed across two texts?

(Paper 2, Q4) June 2018

Because of the ongoing impacts of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, AQA have provided advance information on the focus of June 2022 exams.

Tute have created six specific GCSE English language programmes focused on developing a secure understanding of key content and skills to be assessed in summer 2022. Including exam practice, these programmes are suitable for students who need a boost in English and support with targeted revision.

ENGLISH

Click here to register to join Tute Go Twilight >

Click here to explore GCSE English revision timetable >

Programme 6

Exam practice - Paper 2

Wednesday at 18:00

Thursday at 17:00

Lesson 1

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 2, Q1) Nov 2020

Lesson 2

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to select and synthesise information from different texts?

(Paper 2, Q2) Nov 2020

Lesson 3

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 2, Q3) Nov 2020

Lesson 4

How can you prepare for AQA GCSE English Language?

Nov 2020

Lesson 5

How can you respond to exam questions to ask you to compare how writers' perspectives are conveyed across two texts?

(Paper 2, Q4) Nov 2020

Lesson 6

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to identify implicit and explicit information?

(Paper 2, Q1) June 2018

Lesson 7

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to select and synthesise information from different texts?

(Paper 2, Q1) June 2018

Lesson 8

How can you respond to exam questions that ask you to explain, comment on and analyse the writer's use of language?

(Paper 2, Q3) June 2018

Lesson 9

How can you prepare for AQA GCSE English Language?

June 2018

Lesson 10

How can you respond to exam questions to ask you to compare how writers' perspectives are conveyed across two texts?

(Paper 2, Q4) June 2018